

THE ANCHOR
OF HOPE

HEBREWS 6:13-20

Hebrews 6:13-20, The Anchor of Hope

- God assured Abraham with an oath, setting a precedent of faith (v.13-15)
- God's unchanging purpose confirmed by His oath, giving us hope (v.16-17)
- Hope (soul's anchor), entering the sanctuary behind the curtain (v.18-19)
- Jesus, our high priest in Melchizedek's order, secures this hope (v.20)

Implications

- The reliability of God's promise provides strong encouragement to hold fast to hope.
- The concept of hope as an anchor is central to enduring faith.
- Jesus' role as high priest is pivotal to our relationship with God.
